PERSEUS MIRROR

3154
Natural Iron, Iron

This artistically crafted mirror is a modern take on the centuries-old French sunburst design. Using hundreds of small metal spokes, the frame is handmade by welding each one to the base, then firing the natural iron to get an almost iridescent finish. In contrast to the spokes, the plain glass mirror is surrounded by brass welding for a fully finished and elegant look. Because of its completely handmade nature, slight variances will occur with each.
