THATCHER CHANDELIER

DLI02
White Gesso, Iron

A high-contrast mix of materials dresses up the Thatcher chandelier and lends elegance to its surroundings. The sleek, six-arm illuminator is created in a framework of blackened iron, with graceful, tulip-shaped white gesso iron shades that direct light upwards. A gray-washed wood cylinder serves as a central anchor point for each arm. Finish will vary. Certified for damp locations and intended for interior use.
