Playing with the concept of filled and unfilled forms, the Inset long mirror's smooth glossy surface is set within a deeply textured, bronze plated aluminum form as if it were being poured into a void. The offset, antique brass patled aluminum pill shaped elements create a sense of sliding motion, making the mirror a uniquely modern, dynamic choice for interiors of all kinds. The Inset long mirror can be hung vertically or horizontally to create unique compositions. Finished with a cleat at the back for security. Finish will vary.
